This is an Review Petition filed by Sri M.Allaiah, Laddu Packer, Tirumala Tirupathi Devasthanams u/s 122 of Act 30/1987 against the orders of Government vide Memo No.62255/Endts.III/A1/2005-2, dt.3.6.2006.

2. Sri M.Allaiah, Laddu Packer, Tirumala Tirupathi Devasthanams was placed under suspension alongwith two others on 01.04.1998 on the allegation of black marketing of Laddu Padi tickets and served charge Memo in the reference 1st read above. Three charges were framed against him. The charges centered round an incident on 21.3.1998 in which it was alleged that Sri M.Allaiah who was working as Laddu Packer in Potu purchased two laddu padi tickets Rs.100/- each by producing two requisition letters and later gave these two tickets to dalali accepting an amount of Rs.100/- from him as illegal gratification. According to the charges framed, the dalali took these laddu padi tickets from Sri M.Allaiah and had converted these tickets into Rs.5/- laddu tokens and was caught red handed by Vigilance persons while selling laddu token to Sri Seetharamachandra Rao, Hyderabad at a higher rate. A criminal case No.31/98, u/s 419, 420 read with 34 I.P.C. was also registered against him.

3. The disciplinary enquiry was conducted and the review petitioner was punished with stoppage of four increments with cumulative effect on 15.6.2001 because the Enquiry Officer came to the conclusion that the charges were proved. He filed an appeal before the T.T.D. Board and the appeal was dismissed. Against the decision of the T.T.D. Board, he preferred an appeal before the Government which was also rejected. Aggrieved by this order, the present review petition has been filed. There are two main contentions advanced by the review petitioner. The first is that the competent judicial court which went into the criminal case acquitted him. The second that the Government had allowed appeal of the another employee who was involved in the same case. He has pleaded that he has not committed any offence and there is no evidence to show that he had fraudulently obtained laddu padi tickets and had passed them to the dalali for a premium.

4. The case was posted for hearing on 06.10.2007. Government have heard the arguments of the review petitioner and the Special Officer. Perused the connected records including the judgment of the IIInd Judicial Magistrate, Tirupati. Since the criminal case ended in the acquittal of the review petitioner and the Judge had very clearly stated in the judgment that there is not enough evidence to prove the guilt of the charged person and also because in similar circumstances, the Government had taken a view that there is no case established against Sri N.Ranganatham Iyyar, and see there is no reason to take a different view in this case. Therefore, the review petition filed by Sri M.Allaiah, Laddu Packer, T.T.Ds is hereby allowed.

5. The Executive Officer, Tirumala Tirupathi Devasthanams is requested to take necessary action, accordingly.
